SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. _____

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to honor Mike Epps and his generous contributions to the City of Indianapolis.

Whereas, Mike Epps was born in Indianapolis on November 1, 1970. He was one of nine children born to a single mother;

Whereas, Mike Epps fell into trouble as a teenager. He joined a gang, dropped out of school, and served 18 months on a drug charge. Although these circumstances can become cyclical for some, Mike Epps used these experiences as motivation to better his life and focus on his career as an entertainer;

Whereas, Mike Epps left Indianapolis to pursue his acting and comedic career. He drew on his troubled teen years for material. He found his break on the set of Def Comedy Jam and has subsequently starred in several movies, including Next Friday, Friday after Next, Bail, and Welcome Home Roscoe Jenkins. Mike Epps has also appeared in the HBO series, the Sopranos;

Whereas, Mike Epps has not forgotten his Hoosier roots and continues to make generous contributions to the City of Indianapolis. When he comes home, he frequents the Famous Country Kitchen Restaurant, which President Obama also visited while in Indianapolis during his campaign: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

- 1 SECTION 1. That the Indiana Legislature wishes to honor Mike
- 2 Epps for his generous contributions to the City of Indianapolis.
- 3 SECTION 2. That the Secretary of the Senate is ordered to
- 4 transmit a copy of this resolution to Mike Epps and his family.
